Fundraising ideas

Mini mudder

Organise a mini mudder in your garden – put together a few obstacles and charge friends family and your community to take part. You can even charge on-lookers to throw water or sponges at the competitors.

Tie the event together with a BBQ, face painting and other games for everyone involved!

Quiz night

Organise a pub quiz and curry night at your local pub, charge for entry and put aside some of that money as a prize for the winning team!

If your local pub already holds a quiz night, ask if the proceeds can be donated to Mind. If your local pub doesn't already hold a quiz, speak to the landlord to ask if you can host one to raise funds for Mind.

Choose a mid-week night and the quiz should bring in more business for the pub. You can make the questions up yourself or ask us for a quiz template or even ready-formed quiz (with the answers of course).

Quick team fundraising ideas

Get baking – it's easy to sell cakes and sweet treats for a good cause. Or how about a 'pot luck' lunch or dinner where everyone brings a dish and buys a meal?

Organise a dress down, dress up or fancy dress day and get people to donate to take part (or fine people who don't).

Use a forthcoming event – like the FA Cup, Wimbledon, Olympics or Eurovision. Set up a sweepstake and get people to pay to enter for the chance of winning part of the prize pot.

Who does what?

Use this table to organise who will do what, when it's all happening and fundraising targets!
