

How your

Crafternoon

makes a difference

The impact of coronavirus on the nation's mental health will be long lasting, so it is incredibly important that we take action now. Every Crafternoon helps make sure no one has to face a mental health problem alone.

could answer five enquires to our Infoline, offering support, advice and a friendly ear to someone when they have nowhere else to turn.

could help 90 people access safe, online peer support group services through community-based mental health organisations.

could help support five emergency service workers needing information or advice while fighting on the frontline.

could run a text service for children and young people for over 12 hours, providing vital support and advice.
