

Easter fundraising ideas

Easter egg hunt

The timeless classic. Children (or adults) hunt for chocolate eggs hidden around a garden, home or another location. Charge a fee to take part. Or hold it as a free event that will draw a bigger crowd to a raffle, spring fête or bake sale.

Easter raffle

Because who doesn't want to win a giant chocolate egg?

Hot cross buns

Baking and selling your creations is one of the easiest and most effective ways to raise money. So these seasonal treats are sure to be a success.

Hold a 'decorate the egg' competition

This is a great way of getting creative and raising money at the same time. Charge an entry fee, use real boiled eggs and organise a donated prize for the winner.

You could appoint a judge or get people to vote by putting their spare change in a collection box in front of their favourite. The egg that raises the most money wins.

Egg and spoon race

A classic for children and adults, ask people to pay £1 to enter and provide prizes for the winners.

For more inspiration and advice visit

mind.org.uk

Registered charity in England (no. 219830) and a registered company (no. 424348) in England and Wales.

